Overview of the Collection

Creator: Independent auditor [various]

Title: Reports and letters

Dates: 1967-[ongoing]

Abstract: This record group consists of independent auditor's reports and letters about the JASC's fiscal operations and financial standing. The reports and letters date from 1967 to 1999. Additional reports are added to this series annually. As a non-profit organization registered with the State of Illinois, the JASC is required to file an independent auditor's report of its finances annually. Various independent auditors created these reports and cover letters by reviewing the agency's financial records. For related information, please see also Record Group 4 (Administration); Series 1 (Director's Records), Series 2 (Accountant/Controller's Records), and Series 4 (Administrative Assistant's Records). In 1973, the JASC changed its financial cycle from a calendar year (January to December) to a fiscal year (July to June). These records will be administered in accordance with the JASC Legacy Center Access & Use Guidelines provided to all researchers. Researchers assume full responsibility for following libel, privacy, and copyright laws as they may apply to use of this collection.

Quantity: 1.6 linear feet (4 boxes) [ongoing]

History of the JASC

The Japanese American Service Committee (JASC) is a non-profit, community-based organization providing social services and cultural and community programming. It was founded in 1946 to assist in the resettlement of over 20,000 newly arrived Japanese Americans to Chicago who had been interned in U.S. concentration camps during World War II. Originally called the Chicago Resettlers Committee (CRC), the agency sought to help Japanese American resettlers with housing, job placement, educational, medical, social service, translation, and recreational needs. At the end of the resettlement era, the agency renamed itself the Japanese American Service Committee in October 1954.

After the initial postwar period of resettlement, the JASC undertook a new priority and sought to provide comprehensive services for seniors including English language classes, employment doing piece work (called the Sheltered Workshop begun in 1960), home visitations, and healthcare programs. In addition, the JASC began coordinating community-wide programs and cultural events such as arts and music programs, lectures, festivals, and special celebrations. Eventually the JASC expanded their activities to include other social services such as individual and family counseling, a nutrition program, meals on wheels, adult day services, and household care and general assistance for seniors. The agency constructed a 200-unit home for seniors in 1980 called Heiwa Terrace (920 W. Lawrence in Chicago) and a 180-bed skilled nursing care facility in 1993 called Keiro Extended Care Center (3919 W. Foster in Chicago). This nursing care facility is now called Harmony Nursing Home.

The JASC has been a center of the Japanese American community in Chicago since its founding. As a Japanese American social service agency, the JASC has been keenly aware of the important role it can and should play in preserving, promoting, and passing on Japanese and Japanese American traditions, history, culture, and arts. The agency has made that heritage an integral part of its programming and services.

Currently the JASC serves the Japanese American community in the Chicago metropolitan area as well as various parts of the Midwest. The JASC distinguishes itself by being the only Japanese American social service organization in the Midwest, but it has also grown into a community center used by many other Japanese American and Asian American organizations to hold meetings and events. The primary population the agency serves is Japanese American, but through its various social service programs, the JASC serves a diverse group of people regardless of age, race, gender, religion, sexual orientation or disability.

Today the JASC runs a wide variety of programs including Adult Day Services; Casework & Counseling; Home Support Services; educational workshops on topics such as health insurance, social security, senior driver's education, and estate planning; health screening and flu shot clinics; arts and cultural classes such as ceramics, ikebana (flower-arranging), origami, and tai chi; Japanese American community events and festivals; and the Legacy Center (an archive and library). The JASC also serves as a meeting place for many community groups such as the Tohkon Judo Academy, Tampopo-kai (pre-school), Northside Friends (Quakers), Asian American Law Enforcement Association, Angel Island Theatre Company, Chicago Nisei Post (veterans), New Horizons (a senior singles group), Nisei Minyo Dance Group, Ukulele Club, and the Quilting Club. The JASC is a partner with other groups in programs such as the Lunar New Year celebration, a citywide Japanese American community picnic, periodic Intergenerational Dialog programs, and the annual Day of Remembrance event honoring the U.S. Presidential signing of Executive Order 9066 (authorizing the internment of Japanese Americans). Today the JASC extends its services not only to Chicago' s Japanese American population, but also other Asian American groups and seniors.
