

Tampopo-kai

Japanese Cultural Program for Pre-schoolers

● Let's learn about Japan! ●

Location:

Japanese American Service Committee
4427 N. Clark St. Chicago, IL 60640

Adult Supervision required for both Monday & Wednesday classes.
Networking opportunities for grown ups abundant!

Monday class: 9:30am – 12pm (Play time: 9:30am-10am)

Class is for children under five years of age.

Through physical activities, children will learn about colors, numbers, shapes, sizes, family members, greetings, seasons, weathers, body parts, and more. Japanese culture, annual cultural events & holidays, and Japanese words are also introduced through various activities. Other activities involve songs, plays, games, exercises, stories, and arts & crafts.

Wednesday class: 12:30pm-3pm (Play time: 12:30pm-1pm)

Class introduces hiragana, the Japanese alphabet, in a more formal classroom structure.

The study of hiragana, story time, craft making, exercises time, and Japanese children's play are introduced as part of our weekly routine as well.

The class best suits children at least the age of three who show an interest in reading & writing Japanese.

A story to share:

Trimming the Japan tree at the Museum of Science and Industry is a time-honored tradition for Tampopo-Kai families. Tampopo has been decorating the Japan tree with joy and pride for the Christmas Around the World exhibit since 1989.

(JAPAN Tree has been a part of the ceremony since 1952)

Please come see the class! Everyone is welcome. First class is FREE.
