NEVER AGAIN IS NOW: HOW DO NIKKEI STAND UP FOR JUSTICE TODAY?

Sunday, June 30, 3-5pm

Japanese American Service Committee
4427 N Clark St

Join us for a conversation between this panel of amazing organizers as they help us understand some of the organizing work in Chicago around immigrant detention and deportation, incarceration, and surveillance, and how the Nikkei (Japanese diaspora) community can show up:

Arianna Salgado from Organized Communities Against Deportations

Muhammad Sankari from Arab American Action Network

Sharlyn Grace from the Chicago Community Bond Fund

Miya Sommers from Nikkei Resisters (Bay Area)

Moderated by:

Brandon Lee from Asian Americans Advancing Justice

#NeverAgainIsNow draws connections between present day targeting of immigrants and refugees to the history of Japanese incarceration in the US during World War II, and calls on Japanese people in the U.S. to show up in solidarity and fight for social justice.

The Japanese American Service Committee is wheelchair accessible and has a gender neutral restroom. Light refreshments will be provided.

Please contact JJ Ueunten, jueunten@gmail.com with any questions.
